+++CALL FOR ENTRIES +++

The race is on. From October 13 to October 16 Filmplus is hosting its festival in Cologne for the 17th time and wants to explore the amazing talent within the editing room, while giving them a platform to share their work and discuss it. The new team- artistic directors Kyra Scheurer and Dietmar Kraus and managing director Jenny Krüger – will set a new course in 2017. Further details will be announced in July.

„We have established a close bond with our Filmplus audience over the years. In our first year with a new team and fresh ideas, we hope to offer them something new. Most importantly, we would like to thank our Filmplus partners and sponsors, that have been there from the very start. Thank you for also supporting us in future,“ says Kyra Scheurer, artistic director and associate of the newly founded tricollage gUG.

The festival pays tribute to the life and achievements of one worthy editor and gives the audience a change to exchange ideas and opinions. The main focus of the event, however, is to conduct a competition for film editors and montage artists, present a series of outstanding films, and panel discussions about key subjects, highlighting the work of up-and- coming and experienced film editors.

From now on, feature-length documentaries and fictional films can be submitted until May 31st 2017 and short films until June 30th 2017.
